News From Some Of The Cottages

BABY COTTAGE
First Floor

The baby boys are on the air again eager to tell you all the news.

Just think, on Friday, April 18th, school will be out, and our big boys, Mack Wicker, Buddy Maples, Dwight Reid and Jerry Ennis will not have to go to school any more.

Two of our boys went to the birthday table this month: Johnny Collins and Billy Ennis.

Some of our boys had a visit from their folks. They were Johnny Collins, Perry Williams, Ed Traywick, Clyde Dellinger and Mack Wicker.

Saturday, the bunny came and brought us babies candy, eggs and toys. We also had an egg hunt.

All of us babies want to thank the people from Greensboro for the candy they brought us on Easter Monday.

Johnny Collins still claims he is Mrs. Southerland's "big boy" but the run is mighty close. He has thirteen more little boys to deal with.

Two of our boys are going to be in a play at commencement, Dwight Reid is going to be a pirate, and we are told he acts the part. Buddy Maples is going to be a little Dutch boy.

—The Baby Boys.

ALEXANDER

We want to tell you about our cows. They all have names which we like and thought you would, too, so here they are:

Agnes, Annie, Beauty, Bell, Big, Berdie, Carrie, Cecil Cordie, Cutie, Daisy, Dessie, Dottie, Dutchess, Emma, R. L. Esther, Esther, Fairy, Flora, Flossy, Freddie, Fredda, Hart, Hartline, Hazel, Jane, Lady H., Lackie H., Laura, Leona, Lizzie, Lucy, Mabel, Maggie, Magnolia, Mamie, Mary, Midnight, Mona, Myrtle, Nell, Nina, No. 2, Pearl, Princess, Queen, Rachel, Rosy, R. L. Rosie, Ruby, Ruth, Sadie, Sylvia, Sookie, Sweet, Tarbaby.

The boys who take care of the cows are:

Earl Adams, Scott Blue, Clifton Barefoot, Clifford Barefoot, Gene Dunn, Carl Ferguson John Hawley, Charles Hooten, Snyder Reid, John Lee, Howard Hull, Bill Tyce, Malcolm Rogers, Leland Rogers, Lester May, Hervey Stricklin, Walter Zeigler, Donald Pettus, George Landrum, Roscoe Smith, James Shepherd, Joe Long, Leslie Smith.

Of our other boys: Jimmy Hayes works in the print shop: William Allen is kitchen boy; Robert Pearson is errand boy at the infirmary; Dallas Ammons, Herman Blue and Grady Mundy are house boys.

Another school year is almost at an end. Most all are glad when it closes and will be glad to see it start again.

We are starting a flower garden at the barn. We hope to have flowers for each of you when you come to see us this summer.

WOMAN'S BUILDING
First Floor

This is "Edwin C. Hill" Newnam and "Walter Winchell" McCormick of Barium High School risking our lives to bring you the latest happenings in this "spot of the world."

The new buildings are going up so fast that it looks like magic, and everyone on the campus is waiting until the day when they are finished, especially the boys who are going to live in them.

Softball teams have been organized among ourselves and we have lots of fun playing in the afternoons.

We would love for all of our friends to see our beautiful campus, now that the flowers, fruit trees and other things are in bloom. When the birds start harmonizing, there is no spot on this earth that can compare with the home and school so many of you have made possible for us.

No one will ever know the sinking feeling that we seniors have as our school days are nearing the finish line and we realize it is time for us to leave our home, school, friends and classmates to go out into the world to work for our living. Two of our girls are going to college, three are going to take business college courses, several are going to work, and one is going in training to be a nurse.

Ruth Cole had a visit from her mother, Mrs. H. E. Cole from Salisbury, and everyone enjoyed having her with us, and hope she returns soon.

We had our Junior-Senior picnic at Lookout Dam last Saturday and we had a grand time. The supper that was served was the outstanding event of the evening. (Several of us stood up after that, because we were so full we couldn't take a chance on sitting down.)

The seniors were invited to a party given by their mascot, Monty Cook, last night and everyone had a wonderful time because every minute was filled. I think the most important event was the dart game, especially Sallie Farmer's excellent marksmanship.

The Puplic speaking class is giving a play tonight and we can hardly wait to see Cecil "Grable" Starling and Grover "Lamarr" Ingram in their leading parts.

The orphanage conference is meeting here this week-end and we hope it will be a success. We welcome all the delegates from the different Homes.

Several young "debs" have taken an interest in the "gentlemen" from Catawba. Among these is the well known "Dot" Johnson. She is seen every Sunday night in the company of one "Pluto". How do you rate, Dorothy?

The Coppedge-Shroyer romance has suddenly gone to the rocks again. Too bad, especially since James is leaving for the Navy when he finishes school.

Speaking of the Navy, several of our class are going into service: Roland Hooten, James Shroyer, and Russell McKenzie. Uncle Sam seems to be getting quite a few of our boys.

Mary Adams is back from the Infirmary, where she had the mumps. Mary has the honor of being valedictorian of our class and Emma Eudy is salutatorian.

Louise Martin had a visit from two friends last Sunday, and it wasn't girl friends!

"Jerry" Blue has a new heart throb and if our guess is correct, we think his name is Lowrance.

Ruth Cole and Mary Ann McCormick were heard harmonizing on "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." We wonder why the sudden change, because they both used to recite "Captain, Oh My Captain".

Glenn Linsday and Lilly McDonald were seen snapping pictures Sunday and did they fool some of the people. Confidentially, there weren't any films in the Kodak.

Since we have so many things to do and so little time to do it in, we had better stop. We, the reporters, hope you have enjoyed reading our news because this will be our last time to write about the events on this campus and other important news. We remain as always,

—"Ann" McCormick
"Flora" Newnam.

BABY COTTAGE
Second Floor

This is Station B. C. G. bringing you the monthly news.

We can hardly realize that there are just five more days of school. Some of us are glad (including Janie Smith) and some of us aren't (including Peggy Joyce Land).

Wish to thank some of the nice ladies from Rogers' Memorial church of Winston-Salem for the five quilts brought us. Our baby Lois Dellinger, wants to thank Mrs. Gillespie for the duck she sent her.

Last Wednesday, April 9, Mr. Johnston took us to town and Mr. June Scarborough set us up to an ice cream cup. We certainly enjoyed it and we want to thank him for it.

Lois Dellinger, Peggy Ann Collins, Barbara and Louise Bradshaw, Betty Jean McBride, Jane Feimster, May Hillard, Carolina Wicker and Janie Smith have had visits from their people so far this month.

Wednesday, Mama O'Kelly took us to town and dressed us up in some new white shoes. We couldn't wait until Easter so we have already worn them.

One of our big sisters, Lilly Bryant, went to the birthday table this month. Almost half of us will be going next month.

Mary Hillard's clothing people from Concord brought us a big basket of colored Easter eggs. We wish to thank them for them.

Mama O'Kelly and our two big sisters, Janie and Lilly, took us on a Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon. Carolina Wicker got the prize, which was a shovel full of Easter eggs, for finding the most. We wish to thank all the nice people who have made it possible for us to have had such a nice Easter.

Jane Feimster is the first of us to go to the Infirmary with the measles. We certainly hope no more of us will have to go to bed.

We wish to thank Aunt Callie for the little baskets of Easter eggs she brought us. We also want to thank Mrs. Agnes Land for the pretty cake and cookies she made and sent to us.

HOWARD COTTAGE

We are glad to be writing you again.

Miss Eudy, our matron, got married Saturday, March 29. She flew out of the door so fast that we could hardly see her.

Since we wrote you last we have a new girl. Her name is Aline Parham. She is from Dallas and we are glad to have her with us.

We hope she will like to stay with us too.

Easter is just around the corner and, boy, will we be glad when it comes.

We are pleased to have Miss Burgess for our matron. We all like her.

We went to see, "Strike Up the Band," and we all liked it very much.

Some of the girls have already got their clothing boxes.

Some of our girls have the mumps but we hope they will soon be back with us.

We just have 13 more days to go to school and boy, oh boy, will we be glad.

Since we wrote you we have had some visitor,s. The following girls who had visitors were Ida Lee McBribe and Ann and Eleanor Pope.

—Violet Knight,
—Mattie Pearl Denson

SYNOD'S COTTAGE

Mr. Johnston brought us a thousand marbles that some friends sent in for us and we are all having a good time playing with them.

We only have about three more weeks of school and we sure will be glad because then the swimming pool will be open and we all have a good time in the pool when it is hot.

We have started playing baseball and we have such a good time playing. Mr. Johnston brought us two baseballs and two bats to play with.

One was a small one for the small boys and one for the big boys.

We had the civic supper here Friday night and some of our little boys helped entertain the guests.

John, a little boy has come to live with us and we sure do enjoy having him.

Bobby King went to the Popeye club at the Playhouse in Statesville and won a basket-full of groceries.

George Cauthren went out of our cottage to Lee's last week.

LEE'S COTTAGE

We have been having the measles and mumps in our cottage.

The following boys have been in the infirmary: Esau Davis, Earl Allen, Bobby Whittle, Kenneth Cammer, John Ammons, Raymond Good, Dwight Spencer, Horace Smith, Jerry Young, Charles Barret and Wilbur Coats, but with Mrs. McNatt's good nursing and Miss Lackey's good food all recovered quickly, and are back in the cottage again.

Baseball is in the air.

We play every spare minute we have. A friend of our cottage gave us some new baseball equipment to add to some we have been using for two seasons.

Charles Barrett enjoyed a visit from his mother over the week end.

Bobby Whittle spent the day in Charlotte recently visiting relatives.

We are already thinking of our summer vacation, making plans for visits to our friends and relatives and looking forward to a week at "Camp Fellowship."

It was nice having Mr. Cook's father preach for us at our Wednesday prayer meeting recently. We always enjoy him.

We were invited to a wedding in Little Joe's Church. Ed Flowers and Sadie Eudy, two former members of the Barium family, were married. It was a lovely wedding. We wish them much happiness.

Gene Bonnous is leaving us on May 1st to go to Yonkers, N. Y., to live. We shall miss him, but we are glad he can be with his mother again.

Charles Smith has gone over to Jennie Gilmer to live. We hope he will be happy over there.

George Cauthren came to live with us.

The Bird Club is having some interesting meetings and observing a lot of unusual birds these fine spring days.

Some of us are doing a little gardening, planting a few patches of our own. On the truck farm we are doing things on a large scale.

When the report cards came out for January and Fedruary the following boys were on the honor roll: Ray Lewis, Esau Davis, Raymond Good, Billy Everett, Jerry Young, and George Cauthren.

The new Cottages are going up very fast. We are all looking forward to seeing them finished, and our Alexander Cottage friends moving out of their old building.

Howard and Jack Clark, Jack Jones and George Cauthren united with Little Joe's Church and were baptised last Sunday. Now all the boys in Lee's cottage are members of the Church.

ANNIE LOUISE

Well, Friends, spring has come sure enough, and we are glad of it.

We have only one more week of school, and we are all busy getting ready for the commencement.

The Seniors and Juniors had their outing last week, and they had a mighty good time at Lookout Dam.

Our clothing boxes are coming in now, and are all getting such pretty new clothes.

We hope to have our new shoes in time for commencement.

Hilda Barnes, Betty Lou Williams and Lula Belle Hall went to the birthday table Wednesday.

All our girls except Betty Jo and Sadie have come from the Infirmary. These two are due to come back on Saturday.

We are glad so many of us have had mumps because it didn't hurt us much and we won't have it again.

We had our communion service last Sunday and about 25 of our children joined the church. Those of our girls who did so are: Nellie Isenhour, Gwendolyn Landrum, Betty Jo Smith, Kathleen Monroe, and Helen Morgan.

RUMPLE HALL

This will be the first time in several months that we have written you to let you know how we are getting along.

We have had some cases of mumps and measles. Ruth May came up from the Infirmary Saturday after spending three weeks there. The following are there yet: Mary Nell Pearson, Anna Turner and Betty Dorton.

This is our last week of school and we are getting ready for com-

The Statesville Daily Record's
Leaders of Iredell County
By HARRY GATTON

JOS. B. JOHNSTON

Probably no other man in any work has done a better job than Joseph B. Johnston, superintendent of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs. Since 1922 he has been serving as head of the Barium institution of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina, and his work there is a living example of a job well done.

Born in Lincolnton, March 2, 1880, Mr. Johnston lived in that Lincoln county town until he enrolled as a freshman in Davidson College. Graduating with the class of 1901, after making a splendid record at that school in scholarship and athletics, he took a position with the Atlanta Steel Company in the same year. Mr. Johnston lived in Atlanta until 1907. Later he continued his work in Helena, Alabama for four years. It was in 1912 that Mr. Johnston returned to his home town of Lincolnton and organized an ice and coal company. He was in that business until 1922 when he was named to his present position.

Joe Johnston will tell you that he had seen inside an orphanage only once when he came to Barium Springs. He used "experiments" and they worked.

In 1922, there were 232 students at Barium, now the enrollment is 317. Mr. Johnston has seen 915 students go out of the institution, and adding the present enrollment, 1,232 students have been under his care.

Mr. Johnston was a member of the first football team at Davidson. He also went out for basketball and track. He was named on the "All-Davidson" team in the position of tackle and center.

Supt. Johnston's hobby is football. He is deeply interested in all sports, because it teaches cooperation and is a great health aid. At present he is preparing a booklet of 20 years of athletics at Barium. There were not competitive athletic teams of any sort when he assumed his duties there. Now, Barium rates near the top with the leading teams of North Carolina. The boys and girls at Barium have long been winners in many sports, although it is the smallest school in the South Piedmont Conference.

He has been an Elder in the Presbyterian Church for 25 years. Mr. Johnston was a charter member of the Lincolnton Kiwanis club and was elected district governor of Kiwanis a few years ago.

Mr. Johnston was three times president of the N. C. Orphanage Association, twice president of the Tri-State Conference, and a member of the White House Conference on Children in a Democracy. He is also a member of the Child Welfare League of America.

The health program at Barium Springs is one of the outstanding features of the institution. Individual case records will show that it has been highly successful.

Davidson college awarded him the Algernon Sidney Sullivan award in 1934 for the alumnus doing the greatest service to humanity.

Meeting of Synod Is Postponed to Sept. 23

Originally Scheduled for Sept. 9th.—Hogs and Cows Have Longer to Fatten

At a called meeting of the Synod of North Carolina in Fayetteville recently it was decided to postpone the fall meeting at Barium Springs from September 9th to September 23rd. This was done to avoid a conflict with the opening of the various Presbyterian schools in North Carolina, some of which will start on September 9th and some on September 16th or thereabouts.

In recent years Synod has generally met in the first days of September at the various colleges, the early meeting being necessary to avoid congestion when students had arrived for the fall openings. The situation at Barium Springs is different, for the children are always here, whether the meeting of Synod be held in the spring, summer, fall or winter. It was agreeable with officials here to have the meeting of Synod whenever it was satisfactory to that body.

Postponing Synod two weeks will undoubtedly mean a bigger attendance than ever, since the ministers will have returned from their August vacations and will be able to come to the 1941 meeting. In some cases, ministers have not attended Synod in recent years because they were just back from their vacations and things had to be attended to locally.

The hogs and the cows that are slated for consumption by the ministers and elders will therefore have a couple of weeks more fattening because of this two weeks' postponement of the 1941 meeting of Synod.

Only 13 Bedrooms Yet to Be Given

Four other bedrooms in the new cottages at Barium Springs will be furnished by special $100.00 contributions, leaving only 13 of the 28 bedrooms that are yet to be taken by organizations or individuals. It will be remembered that an announcement was made last month that all four of the living rooms were to be furnished with $200.00 sums.

C. S. Hicks of Durham and other members of his family have notified officials that they were going to send $100.00 for this purpose in memory of their father and mother; Mrs. Helen Brown Coble, an alumnae of Barium, is giving $100.00, part of which is already in hand; Mr. and Mrs. Coit Robinson, of Lowell, have sent $100.00 to furnish a bedroom, and the executive board of Kings Mountain Presbyterial has voted to assume a $100.00 obligation for this purpose.

The total special sum for the furnishings is now $2,300.00, and it is expected that organizations or individuals will take the other 13 bedrooms for an aggregate of $1,300.00, making $3,600.00 that will be available by special contributions to provide the furnishings for 28 bedrooms and four living rooms.

BULLETIN

As The Messenger was ready to go to press in April announcement came from the treasurer's office that the grand total contributed for the support fund of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home in 1940-1941 was a few dollars greater than the aggregate for the 1939-1940 church year. Last minute reports before the books were closed enabled this good news to be revealed in this copy of The Messenger. The Thanksgiving Offering was a little less in 1940 than in 1939, but increased regular giving offset this.

During April, too, final reports from Sunday Schools of the Synod sent the regular total from that source to a new all-time high-water mark by surpassing a peak sum donated by the Sunday Schools in 1939-1940.

It will be remembered that the majority of the money raised by the ladies of the North Carolina Synodical for a cottage at Barium Springs largely came during the Church year of 1940-1941. This building fund money is not reflected in the support fund total, for it was kept in a separate category.

Civic Club Members Attend Annual Dinner

From The Statesville Daily of March 28th.

The Rotary, Kiwanis, and Lions Clubs of Statesville and Mooresville held their 18th annual joint meeting as guests of General Manager Joseph B. Johnston and his associates at the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Barium Springs, at a supper held in the spacious Rumple Hall Friday night. Members of the six civic clubs of the two Iredell county towns and their guests assembled in large numbers at the entrance to the dining hall and were ready to enter when the doors were opened promptly at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Johnston and his staff have mastered the art of making their visitors feel at home and the people of Mooresville and Statesville look forward with eager expectations to the pleasure of the annual joint meetings at Barium Springs. All formality is laid aside on the occasion of these enjoyable meetings.

The supper was supervised by members of the orphanage household and the food was served by the bright girls of the institution in great variety and in superabundance. Practically everything on the tables was grown on the farm, or produced here in Iredell county.

The program was an old Southern party, with Billy Lindsey and Ruth Cole acting as host and hostess. The stage had the appearance of an old colonial home. Guests included five couples, the girls being attired in evening dresses. Paul Horne accompanied Evelyn Coppedge; Dick Parrish was with Louise Brock; Vance Smith and Betty Whittle came together; Cecil Starling and Mae Shoaf made up another couple, and Billy McCall came in with Marie Morgan.

Entertainment for the assembled guests consisted of a varied program. Pleas Norman appeared as "Black Tom" and sang a solo number; Daisy Cayton was "Mandy", she being followed by six pickannies: Peggy Joyce Land, Jane Feimster, Sylvia Sue Buie, Mack Caldwell, Paul Dellinger and Johnny Slater. "Mandy" sang a solo; she and her consort of pickannies sang "Short'ning Bread" and "Black Tom" and "Mandy" sang a duet together. Later, the pickannies did some dancing, and Mabel Milton did a solo dance.

There was a band to entertain the guests, made up of Jeanne Steppe as leader; Ethel Brotherton, Charles Faircloth, Clara Mangum, Essie Jean Lee, Douglas Davis, Francis Stricklin, Billy Dunn, Amie Lybrand, Fred Feimster, Dwight Reid, Ray Powell, Sarah Bradshaw, Joe Ben Riddle, Mae Hillard and Katie Dunn. These were attired in white uniforms and red-banded caps.

During the evening's entertainment, the visiting guests participated in a Virginia Reel and after the party was over the guests marched off the stage to music.

In closing, Mr. Johnston expressed his great pleasure at having the opportunity to greet the large number of civic people of Statesville and Mooresville.

Work Is Progressing On Five Structures

Brick Work Finished on Cottages and Roofs Are On.—Print Shop Started

Visitors to Barium Springs nowadays are seeing a lot of activity in progress as five buildings are under construction. The quadrangle of cottages is contracted to be completed by August 1st, but with the progress made, they will be finished long before that time. Ground was broken on April 21st for the printing office and shoe shop building, and by the time this copy of The Messenger is placed in the mails, the walls of the latter building will be rapidly climbing.

All of the brick work has been laid and the tops are on the roofs of the four cottages, which means that rainy days in the future will not interfere with work, as the men will have inside work to keep them busy. Delegations nowadays to the Home are toured through one of the cottages to give them a picture of the floor plan and are not taken into the dormitory side of Alexander, unless a particular desire is expressed to see what is going to be replaced. Visitors are taken in the printing office which is currently housed in Alexander, but which will have a new building all its own within a couple of months.

The printing office and shoe shop building is on the administrative side of the campus, close to the office. This will be an ideal arrangement, for its former location on the opposite side of the highway and the back part of the campus has been inconvenient and caused delay as conferences were necessary between individuals in the office and printing establishment.

Visitors Urged to Visit This Home

In any year there are a great many visitors to the campus at Barium Springs, but the number of delegations and those spending a little while on the campus here are expected to increase considerably during 1941-1942, which is the semi-centennial year of celebration at Barium Springs. The Home was established here in January of 1891 - the 11th day of January, 1891, to be exact - and the milestone in the history of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home is being recognized in the Church year of 1941-1942.

Because of this celebration of a half-century of service, many people will want to participate in it by visiting Barium Springs - some for the first time and maybe some for their second or third visits. There will be others, too, who will want to come to Barium Springs this summer to see the new quadrangle of cottages and the printing office and shoe shop building. Of course, the meeting of Synod at Barium Springs in September will bring many ministers and elders to the campus, as well as other visitors who might be here for special portions of Synod's program.

Recently 41 people were here from Durham, a small party came from Greensboro, and another group is scheduled the latter part of April to visit Barium Springs from Kings Mountain. Most of the visitors arriving in the morning have lunch with the large family. Just notify officials two days ahead of time how many will be in the party and the necessary arrangements will be made.

Winter Athletes Are Honored at Banquet

The annual banquet for the winter sports performers at the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs was held in the dining room of Rumple Hall here Friday night, April 4, at which time tribute was paid to the varsity wrestlers, who are co-champions with Greensboro High for the state title; to the varsity basketball contingent which won the South Piedmont conference crown for the second year in succession; to the 125-pound boys' basketball team which won the Junior Mid-Piedmont tournament; to the midget girls' sextette which was runner-up in the Junior Mid-Piedmont tournament, and to the varsity girls' basketball team which had a season of fair success.

Harry Barkley, coach of the girls' varsity basketball outfit, was the toastmaster of the occasion, to which guests from Statesville and this territory had been invited to a meal principally composed of home-grown food products. John Wesley Ervin gave out letters to the wrestlers; Rev. T. C. Cook to the midget girls' court team; Ralph Spencer to the 125-pound boys' basketball aggregation; W. A. Hethcox to the varsity girls' basketball team members and Jos. B. Johnston to the varsity lettermen.

May Shoaf and Arthur Roach were announced as the choices of their teammates as the most valuable members of their respective varsity basketball outfits during the 1941 season. Hugh Norman is the 1942 basketball captain, with Joe Ben Gibbs as alternate, and Billy McCall was revealed to be the 1942 captain of the wrestlers. The girls' varsity basketball team did not choose a captain. Billy Lindsey was announced as state wrestling champion in the 165-pound weight. Miniature gold basketballs were presented the boys who won the South Piedmont conference title in 1941.

Varsity boys' basketball: Arthur Roach, Hugh Norman, Joe

From The Statesville Daily of March 29th.

Flowers-Eudy

In a ceremony solemnized Saturday evening at seven o'clock in Little Joe's Presbyterian church, Barium Springs, Miss Sadie Eudy and Mr. Ed. Flowers were united in marriage. Rev. Thomas C. Cook, pastor of Little Joe's church, was the officiating minister.

Ferns and grouping of cathedral candles made an effective setting for the simple service. Before the ceremony Miss Laura Gray Greene, at the piano, played "Meditation from Thais," Massenent; and the girls of Howard Cottage, where the bride was matron, sang "Oh, Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride and bridegroom were unattended and entered the church together. For her wedding the bride wore an ensemble of navy crepe, trimmed in white. Her hat and other costume accessories were navy and her flowers were a corsage of pink roses.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Flowers left for a short wedding trip and on their return will be at home in Statesville, where they have an apartment.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Flowers were reared in the Barium Springs Orphanage. Mrs. Flowers has been matron of Howard Cottage for the past few years. Mr. Flowers holds a position with J. C. Steele and Sons, of this city.

Moore-Foures.

Helen Moore, a 1939 graduate of Barium Springs, and Joseph Clifton Foures, of Charlotte, were married in Charlotte on Christmas Day. Since finishing here, Helen had been working in Charlotte most of the time. They are making their home in that city.

Kennedy-Mullis

Information has been received here of the marriage of Bessie Kennedy, another 1939 graduate, to Glenn Mullis, of Taylorsville, though the present residence of Mr. and Mrs. Mullis was not revealed. Bessie had been working at the Orthopedic Hospital in Gastonia since her graduation from Barium Springs.

We got our new shoes Thursday night, and we are all so happy. They are all real pretty.

We are having a good time with one of our favorite sports - baseball. We hope to organize a real team later on when we can have a better place to play.

Mr. Cook's father preached to us last Wednesday night and we all enjoyed hearing him.

We are having a lot of visitors from time to time.

Hilarious Play Is Presented at Barium

An appreciative audience was kept in an uproar at Barium on the night of April 11th, when the public speaking department of the high school presented a three-act farce "Breezy Money" under the direction of W. A. Hethcox. This could be considered the initial event of the 1941 graduation program, since this class annually delights the Barium family and other visitors with an excellent presentation.

The boys had spent only about three weeks in preparation for the presentation, but onlookers thought they had been working for a much longer period. The crowd laughed long and heartily at two of the boys who took the parts of ladies in the play - Cecil Starling, who had one of the leading roles, and Grover Ingram, who impersonated a lady during a portion of the play. They appreciated, too, the sound effects which were under the direction of Billy Lindsey.

Characters in the play were William Billings as "Breezy," a press agent de luxe; Standish McKenzie, as "Hoedown," the world's laziest bellboy; Russell McKenzie, "Cummin," owner of Cummin Inn; Jack McCall, "Carter Maxton, Jr.," a millionaire; Tom McCall, as "Dick Landis," almost dead broke; Cecil Starling, as "Jimmy Gale" completely dead broke; Hugh Norman, as "Colonel Southern," the Old South with a young daughter; Billy McCall, "Herbert West," Dick's rival; Grover Ingram, as "Mops", good on impersonations; and James Shroyer, "Lonnie," sheriff and handy man.

March Receipts About As Usual

Presbytery	March Receipts	Thanks-	Am't Received	Total Per Mem. for
Winston-Salem	$ 783.75	$ 5.25	14.7c	138.2c
Concord	687.71	227.55	7.1c	128.2c
Kings Mountain	385.48	7.50	6.3c	111.9c
Mecklenburg	1,132.78	303.98	7.7c	106.3c

Fayetteville	718.15	125.03	6.2c	59.6c
Wilmington	466.67	27.75	5.8c	55.4c
SYNOD	$5,584.01	$817.80	7 c	93.7c

Comment on March's table of receipts will be brief, for there's a final tabulation of income from Synod that will appear in the May issue of The Messenger and then a comparison with last year's responses from each Presbytery will be appropriate and timely. There is always considerable old-year money arriving in the early part of April and in order to record these sums upon the year in which they are contributed the books at Barium are kept open for a period of time for such listings.

The particular receipts between March 1st and 31st this year were $473.92 less than in March, 1940, this cutting into the gain noted in Synod's giving at the close of February. Synod still had a positive sum of $191.42 as the Home entered that hold-over period in April for the 1940-1941 receipts. In April, 1940, Synod sent $6,494.92 in the first half of April on 1939-1940, and whether it will be this much this year remains to be seen. On April 12th, Synod lacked $1,246.54 of equalling 1939-1940's final aggregate, with only a few days remaining until the auditor's arrival when the books must be closed.
